Premier's Eulogises Ally.

(Reuter's Service.)

London, August 18. In the House of Commons, Mr. Lloyd George, reviewing the Imperial Conference, dwelt on Japan's loyal interpretation of the delegation to the Pacific Conference will number a hundred. alliance enabling us to guarantee transport of the overseas troops. one of the turning factors of the war. "Shall it be suggested that I wo discussed conference matters." we now say to the Japanese: 'Thank you for standing by us in our trouble, but we don't need you any longer. Good-bye?' Would any one so behave in business? The British Empire must behave like a gentleman (cheers), and if it was suggested that we end the alliance when the trouble is over, that would not be becoming the Empire in dealing with a faithfull ally (cheers). That does not mean that we are continuing the alliance with any point against anybody elsecertainly not the United States."

Mr Lloyd George Communing said it was a cardinal principle of British policy to act in complete accord with the United States.-(cheers) There was no country in the world with which it was more important to art in concert. It was most difficult to get an Englishman to regard an American as a foreigner, but he did not see why it was impossible to remember obligations to Japan and simultanequally preserve a spirit of fraternity with the United States. If the Japanese Alliance could merge into a greater understanding with Japan, and the United States on all Pacific problems that would be a great event and would guarantee the world's peace, because the problems of humanity to-morrow, maybe, were in the Pacific ocean and the Powers chiefly concerned with the Pacific, namely the United States, Japan and the British Empire-[cries of "China")-Mr. Lloyd George continued: -- and China, those four great countries were primarily concerned with having a complete understanding as regards the Pacific. The surest way in making for the success of any disarmament conference was firstly to have an understanding on the Pacific. The whole of the British Empire were agreed on the desire for complete friendship with the United States, and the necessity for removing every conceivable obstacle to such friendship. An Anglo-America agreement on the great principles of the world's policy would be an absolute guarantee of peace and he was still hopeful that such an understanding as would make us feel that such a [ From Our Own Correspondent.] partnership could be established will ensue as a result of the Washington conference.

Paris, Aug. 18.

Further light has been thrown on the causes of last week's crisis at the Supreme Council, in a statement made by M. Briand to pressmen, in which he said that the British and French only absolutely agreed on two points, namely, that the Peace Treaty provided the partition of Upper Silesia and that the inhabitants wishes must be consulted therein. They differed in the interpretation of Article SS. M. Briand then elaborated the French standpoint as regards the division and what the industrial region comprehended and showed how disagreement arose regarding the question of the divisibility of the industrial region. He said the League's advice would enable the Supreme Council to take a final decision and concluded with a declaration of the necessity to the entente to maintain a firm union.

Some opium merchants "approached the authorities with an offer to purchase smuggled opium, but the provincial officials have decided that in order to discourage illicit opium trade, prevent copium smoking and observe the agreement made with the foreign powers, this seized opium should budestroyed. The public burning will take place at the East Parade Grounds opposite the Provincial Assembly Building on Saturday morning August 20, at 11 o'clock. Toe foreign consuls and the Commissioner of Customs have been invited to attend the ceremony. The suppression of gambling and strict prohibition of opium smoking are two acts of civic righteousness which evidence the entire sincerity of the Canton Administration.

The ceremony for the burning | of smuggled opium which was to take place this coming Saturday has been postponed to August 27 because more time is required to construct a suitable furnace. As this is also Victory Day, a general celebration will be held by public organisations to mark the complete downfall of the Kwangsi Militarists and the success of the Cantonese Army.

ALIEDED JAPANESE LOAN TO ENGINEERING WORKS.

The National Associated Bodies of Shanghai have telegraphed to the directors of the Yangtze Engineering Works in Hankow protesting against the alleged loan of $2,000,000 from Japanese sources. It is said that the conditions are that the loan shall be repaid in a period of 20 years after which the Japanese financiers will share profits of the Works. Other shareholders in Shanghai have also protested and suggested that a new issue of shares bemade.

CHINESE AERONAUTICAL DEPT. The Aeronautical Department at Peking has fallen into line with all of the other Government Departments—it is short of funds. It is stated that British creditors have refused to pay any more loan proceeds to the Government for the sustenance of the Department on the ground that the Government has failed to pay the interest due on the advanced instalments of the Aviation Loan. The view is expressed by the vernacular press that the only way to solve the problem is either to place the Department under British control or to close it.

ABDUCTION OR HOAX? Mystery surrounds the S.O.S. writer was "forcibly detained in the upper storey of a building near Battersea Bridge." The strange communication, which ends with the exclamation "Help!" states. "Homeless, and sleeping out in a watehouse yard. I was pounced upon by three men and stunned by a blow on the head." It is signed "Amy Marden." Leaving nothing to chance, the police vesterday carried out an exhaustive search of likely buildings, but were unable to discover either the captive or any indication that the alleged dramatic crime had taken place. They are inclined to regard the affair as a hoax, but have not given up hope of unravelling the

DAMAGES FOR SHELLED

TRANSPORT. The Wutung Steamship Company has approached the Ministry of War for indemnity for the damage inflicted on the steamer Hangchow, which was shelled by Russians while transporting troops for the Ministry.

ALLEGED INCENDIARISM. A fire, which fortunately was quickly subdued, occurred on the while unloading kerosene at Dairen on July 20. There was suspicion that the outbreak was incendiary in origin, but no incriminatory evidence could be

NEW SHANGHAI-JAPAN LINE. A new shipping service has teen opened between Shanghai and Japan by the Tenka Yoko, a firm composed of business men in Kobe and Osaka. The first steamers for this service are the Toko Maru, 2,100 tons, and the Toyo Maru III., 2,700 tons. Several ships are to be built by the company, and they will be placed on the services as they are completed.

DANGER OF OIL IN SHANGHAI HARBOUR.

The nuisance and danger resultant upon oil being discharged indiscriminately in to Shanghai harbour shows no signs of abating. Unless something is done, there will be a terrific blaze some day, and what with the ever-congested state of the harbour and the obsolescence of the fire-fighting. appliances, it will be fortunate if a serious catastrophe is avoided. -Shipping and Engineering.

> OLD HAUNT OF CHINESE PIRATES.

It has been learned that the den of the Chinese pirates infesting the Kwangtung (Manchuria) coast waters is located on an island called Shibchengtao at some 60 nautical miles northeast ot the mouth of the Piliu River. This island has remained the base of operations of the baccaneers nautical miles from Dairen, and between is a Chinese territory outside the > FIRE ON JAPANESE WARSHIP. Although official news on the subject is lacking, it is reported that a terrific explosion occurred recently, on the Japanese battlecruiser Kirishima, while the vessel was lying in Sayegi Bay. A fire is said to have broken out in the engine room, the flames spreading quickly to the oil bunkers, which burst with a terrific explosion. It was only after great efforts on the part of the crew that the flames were overcome. The cause of the fire and the extent of the damage have not been divulged. The Kirishima is now docked for repairs at many freaks of the electoral campaign the most curious and amusing is reported by the Corrière della Sera. In Naples there are eight lists of 100 candidates for the 17 seats in the constituency. The eighth listwhich was the last that was presented on nomination day—is the list of the Cabal, or, to make things clearer, the list of candidates who apparently wish to represent in Parliament the great body of gamblers in the State lettery. Those who know something of the feverish passions of the Neapolitan populace for the lottery will not be surprised to hear that they have formed a party for the purpose of sending to Parliament a set of esteemed and experienced gamblers able to uphold the interests of the whole class. The list is headed by the editor of a local paper, called the Craum. It is full of Cabalistic mysteries, and gives every week instructions how to interpret these celestial phenomena and natural portents and to derive from them the winning number in the drawings. Among other candidates are a green-graver, well known for the magical herbs that he sells and his knowledge of them. Nothing could be imagined more . . Neapolitan!
